ADVISORY: MANCHIN TO TESTIFY AT
Environment and Public Works
SUBCommittee HEARING ON CHEMICAL SAFETY BILL HE CRAFTED WITH Chairwoman

Hearing will examine the safety and security of drinking water supplies in light of the recent chemical spill into the Elk River

Washington, D.C. – In the aftermath of the chemical spill that left 300,000 West Virginia residents without water, U.S. Senator Joe Manchin (D-W.Va.) will testify at the Senate Environment and Public Works Subcommittee on Water and Wildlife hearing. He will discuss the Chemical Safety and Drinking Water Protection Act, which is legislation he crafted with the Environment and Public Works Committee Chairwoman Barbara Boxer (D-CA) to help protect Americans from chemical spills that threaten drinking water. The hearing will be held from 10 a.m. to 12 p.m.

TUESDAY, February 4, 2014

When: 10 a.m.

Where: EPW Hearing Room, 406 Dirksen Senate Office Building, Washington, DC.

What: Senator Manchin will discuss the Chemical Safety and Drinking Water Protection Act at the Environment and Public Works subcommittee hearing on Water and Wildlife.
